By Road

From the M42: Exit at Junction 2 [Signposted Birmingham South].

From the motorway roundabout take the A441 towards Birmingham.

At the next roundabout, turn left [Signposted Alvechurch].

Continue to the next roundabout and follow the signs for Alvechurch passing under the motorway to enter the village of Alvechurch.

Follow the road through the village until you come to a pedestrian crossing controlled by traffic lights. Immediately beyond this pedestrian crossing turn right into Bear Hill.

Follow the road up the hill until, as you leave the village, you pass over a railway bridge followed closely by a canal bridge.

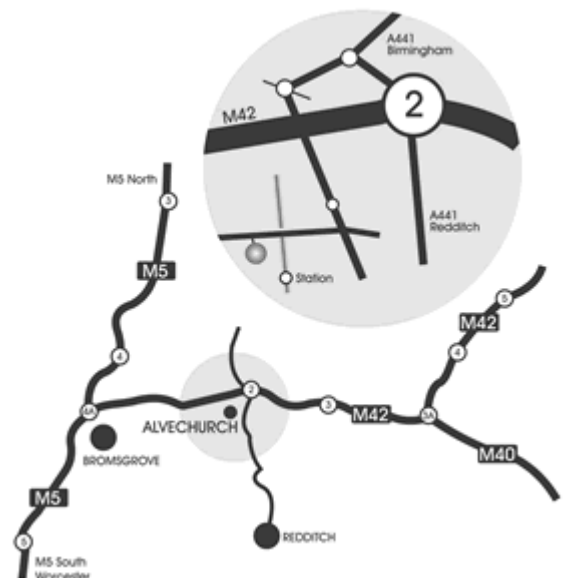

The Marina entrance is then on your left about 200 metres beyond the Canal Bridge. Click here or on the map, for a larger version.

By Rail

From London (Euston Station) take the train to Birmingham New Street Station. Weekdays and Saturdays trains depart every 30 mins and journey time is about 90 mins. At Birmingham New Street Station take the Local service to Redditch.

Trains depart every 30 mins and the journey time is about 40 mins. Alvechurch is an unstaffed station which is the last stop before Redditch. The boatyard is about 300 metres from the station. You can plan your rail journey on this website www.thetrainline.com

By Air

From Birmingham International airport you can take a taxi to the boat yard (about 30 mins) or take a train from Birmingham International rail station to Birmingham New Street then follow directions by rail.

From Luton, Heathrow, Gatwick or Stanstead airports. Take the inter airport coach service to Birmingham International airport and then follow directions as above. Alternatively take a train to London then follow directions by rail.

Food Shopping

As well as the Alvechurch Marina Shop from which you can purchase essential provisions, there is a small convenience store in Alvechurch village. The nearest supermarket is a Sainsbury's off the A441 on the edge of Redditch.

The Weighbridge Public House

There is a canal side "Free house" on Alvechurch Marina serving drinks, real ale, and reasonably priced home cooked bar food. This cozy canalside pub was once the old Weighbridge office for offloading coal barges to horse and cart for local deliveries. It is now transformed into a friendly hostelry which is an ideal place to start and finish your holiday. Food is served daily, and during the cruising season breakfast can also be booked to make your last morning as relaxing and memorable as the rest. Open from 12 - 3pm and 7 - 11 pm (Sunday 10.30pm). Home cooked food available 12 - 2pm and 7 - 9pm Thursday to Monday. Sandwiches available on Tuesdays & Wednesdays. Booking advisable for Sunday lunches.

Meals and breakfasts can be booked in advance by telephoning 0121 445 5111 or by calling at the bar during opening hours.
